IN A DRESSING ROOM

By LILLIAN WOODS.

"My, I thought I wasn't going to be able to come!" exclaimed Miss Finch, peering closer into the mirror and adding a delicate touch of excitement to her cheeks.

"You know, I hinted and hinted," she explained, "but Paul hadn't any ears at all! My, I wouldn't have missed it for a farm! The floor's swell, ain't it? And, say, did you see the orchestra they've got? All of fifteen pieces! Must have cost them something, let me tell you!"

"Yes," rejoined Miss Smithson, as she delved for a powder bag and began its careful application.

Honest, Miss Finch, I envy you—your color comes and goes at your own good will! Now, when I put on my best dress and get my hair combed my face begins to show signs of labor and by the time I get on the floor I look like a washerwoman! Honest, it's an awful trial."

Miss Smithson gave her cheeks another coating of the powder to cover the offending color, and restored the bag to its place. Then she unwrapped her slippers.

"You know, some girls think they can't come to a dance unless they have a carriage; but I'm not so stuck up yet awhile! Now, here my slippers will look just as good as if I'd walked on a red carpet to an automobile from my own house and from the automobile in here, don't they, now?"

Miss Smithson put up a languid foot and motioned to the maid to assist her.

"You saw that girl that just went out?" went on Miss Smithson. "Well, what do you suppose I heard her say? I wasn't listening, but she talked for the benefit of us all, as anyone could tell, so I just took it in. She said that hair was all hers! She said she just ran a comb through it in the morning and the curls fell that way! As if you couldn't see a mile away that she bought it by the yard! Isn't it funny how some people will think they can put one over? But I should worry about it!"

"No, it's not as if we should scorn to buy it by the yard ourselves," remarked Miss Finch, planning a rose into a cluster of curls before applying the whole to her coiffure.

"Well, I like that!" retorted Miss Smithson. "All I got on is my own—and I'm not afraid to take it down!"

Miss Finch changed the subject hastily. "You didn't say anything about my gown," she remarked. "I got it at a sale. It's worth $30 if it's worth a cent, and I'd be ashamed to say what I got it for, just because they had to make room for summer goods, they said." She gazed at her reflection in the mirror appreciatively. "You know, I was afraid I'd be conspicuous here in it, but I guess it's going to be some dance, and I'll be glad I wore it. It's too bad you didn't!"

"It's Worth $30 If It's Worth a Cent."

"I had this made specially for this dance," interrupted Miss Smithson, with dignity. "The fussy things are all out—that's why they sell them so cheap—and the whole thing now is the plain dress with good lines. I was afraid it wouldn't be done for tonight, and I'd have to wear one of those beaded things like yours that I had last winter, but a woman who was going abroad decided to wait a while longer, so the dressmaker was able to finish this!" Miss Smithson drew up her skirts and stood before the mirror in pleased scrutiny.

"I think we'd better get a move on us if we want the first dance—I hear the music, and the boy'll be frantic," suggested Miss Finch.

"It'll do them good to wait—they'll appreciate us all the more when we get there," replied the sophisticated Miss Smithson, giving a parting touch to her complexion before the mirror. "This sure is my color—I feel that I am going to enjoy myself tonight. I always can tell!"

"Oh, goodness! Maybe they'll ask some one for the first dance. Come on! Let's run!"—Chicago Daily News.

Husband—Good heavens, doctor, how can I do that when she goes through my pockets regularly every night!

Truck Replaced Three Teams

In eleven months this three-ton KisselKar Truck covered in actual service 4,760 miles at a fuel cost of $1.08 per day. Manned by a driver and one helper, it replaced three teams of horses. The average daily burden was 37 17.20ths. It carried an average load of four tons—one ton overload—but in the entire period named, was laid up only two and one-half hours for repairs.

"We can recommend the KisselKar Truck and assure that it lives up to its guarantee," writes Thomas E. Fleischer, manager of the Sheboygan Lime Works.

Two and one-half hours for repairs, carrying over 37 tons per day is a record worthy of notice. KisselKar Trucks cost little to maintain and are economical to operate because the problem is solved in KisselKar construction.

Note these striking KisselKar features—Simple engine—easy to operate—reserve power—excess capacity—differential lock preventing one drive wheel absorbing all the power on slippery places, and stalling the truck—four speed transmitters geared up—fourth speed permitting high speed when desired without racing engine; 15 to 20 per cent. lower fuel consumption than average trucks—light spring suspension for power plant, heavy spring suspension for load—gauge that weighs load—greatest accessibility—easy control—larger brake drums, and extra powerful brakes—special bodies designed to meet every need.

KisselKar Trucks

1500 lbs.-1-2-3-4 and 5 Tons

In the range of capacity, 1500 lbs. to 5 tons, you can find just the type that fills your requirements—and with the KisselKar Truck goes the KisselKar Service, which is the manufacturer's guarantee of satisfaction.

KisselKar Service means taking off your hands all of the mechanical details. A special service building is maintained in this city for the benefit of KisselKar owners. The KisselKar service is a broad and comprehensive arrangement between manufacturer and owners that cares for the car, maintains efficiency, retards depreciation and minimizes upkeep. This service is a valuable consideration in the purchase of a power wagon. Investigate it.

Ask us to analyze your present horse haulage ss compared to motor haulage. The result will be interesting.

Mr. Kentucky Farmer

If we told you of a crop which brought a cash income the year around, made the soil richer every year and required no skilled labor to handle it,

Wouldn't That Be The Crop For You?

You have this opportunity. The Tri-State Butter Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, will buy your cream the year around, pay spot cash for every shipment and give you a market that is responsible, safe and permanent, and proven so to more than 5,000 shippers.

No skilled labor is required to ship cream. Separate the milk, ship when convenient to you—twice a week in the summer season and not quite so often in the winter time.

Every cow will pay cash for what she eats, yielding a revenue of from $50.00 to $90.00 per year, besides adding $25.00 worth of fertility to your soil.

Ship your cream to-day, or write for free trial cans.
